Barthold Kuijken, one of the world’s leading early music specialists, taught baroque flute at the Royal Conservatories of Brussels and The Hague until his retirement in 2014. He continues teaching master classes, playing, and conducting all over the world. He has published Urtext editions of the Telemann flute fantasies, J.S. Bach flute sonatas, and C.P.E. Bach flute concertos, and has recorded all of the core historical flute repertory. His book The Notation Is Not the Music: Reflections on Early Music Practice and Performance, was

GUEST ARTIST BARTHOLOM KUIJKEN

Masterclass with Barthold Kuijken: Internationally renowned for his scholarship and brilliant teaching, Mr. Kuijken will share his insights into early music. Three students will be selected to perform on modern flute. Interested flutists should send a recording of two contrasting works or movements, including one from the Baroque period, a short bio (up to 100 words), and contact info to Masterclass Coordinator Yeemyen Faniuk at yeemyen.faniuk@gmail.com by February 1.

CONCERTS

New York Artists Recital Demarre McGill and Erik Gratton, principal flutists of the Metropolitan Opera, and Nadine Hu perform works by Ranjbaran, Schoenfeld, and Gaubert.

Mélange Recital: Flutist Wendy Stern, violinist Shelby Yamin, and harpsichordist Joyce Lindorff, perform works by Cynthia Follo and Michael White that redefine the baroque trio sonata. Gergely Itzés plays Dohnányi and is joined by Mindy Kaufman for a work by Cynthia Follo; the composer will speak.

Winners of the 2017 Young Musicians Contest in Recital

Student Ensembles Showcase Concert: Teachers, if you would like your flute ensemble to perform at the Fair, please contact Yeami Kim at yeami.kim@gmail.com by February 10.

Flute Ensemble Celebration: A concert of ensembles from around the Northeast

WORKSHOPS, PRESENTATIONS, AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Morning Warm Up with Mindy Kaufman: Start your Fair day on a high note! Bring your flute and warm up with principal piccoloist of the New York Philharmonic Mindy Kaufman.

Balance, Breathing, and Tone: Creating a vibrant, singing tone requires dynamic, fluid breathing. Certified Alexander Technique teacher and Andover Educator Kimberly Clark will discuss balance and the anatomy of breathing to help flutists achieve a free, effortless tone. Bring your instrument!

What You Don’t Know About Anxiety: Kristen Gygja, specialist in anxiety resolution for performing artists, will reveal three key misunderstood characteristics of anxiety and present simple practical tools for resolving your anxiety, and make space for a new experience.

Stories and Insights—How Scholarship Informs Performance: While flute instruction is often taught separately from studies of music history and theory, the connections can be both fascinating and indispensable to performers. Kyle Dzapo, president of the NFA, will demonstrate how helpful historical and analytical knowledge can be.

An Acoustic Knife Edge for your Baroque or Modern Flute: Physicist Kathy Saenger will demonstrate an easy and reversible modification to the flute embouchure hole using a simple piece of tape that can improve the sound of your baroque or modern flute. Maybe it will work for you! Try it and see.

Effective Practicing: Alberto Almarza of Carnegie Mellon University, will share tips and techniques to achieve results more quickly during your practice. Learn how to solve technical problems and use digital tools for your daily routine.

Deeper Musicianship through Improvisation: Discover new freedom of expression and more meaningful communication through improvisation. Jazz/classical flutist and composer Lori Bell presents a workshop for everyone, especially for flutists primarily focused on classical repertoire.

Lean On Me—Baroque Ornamentation for Kids: Join Baroque flute specialist Leela Breithaupt for a fun and engaging workshop. Learn about recognizing and stylistically playing appoggiaturas, mordents, trills, and turns and using vibrato (yes, it’s a Baroque ornament!). Bring your flute.

Baroque Dance for Musicians: Learn to dance the bourrée, the menuet, and other common Baroque dance movements. Dancer and dance historian Thomas Baird will teach you how to dance the music you love to play! No experience necessary—just wear comfortable clothes, and socks or tie-on shoes.

The Enduring Thomas Nyfenger, 40 Years Later: Master teacher Keith Underwood of Mannes and NYU shares ideas from the legacy of Thomas Nyfenger, renowned flutist and pedagogue. Bring your flutes!

Latin American Sounds: Warmups set in a South American musical context. Explore and be inspired by new sounds—for amateurs, students, and teachers—with Carmen Marulanda.

Fête for Fritz: A panel honoring Karl “Fritz” Kraber, longtime flutist of the Dorian Wind Quintet, moderated by Jayn Rosenfeld. His illustrious career includes international tours with the quintet and commissions from composers including Luciano Berio, Henry Brant, Jacob Druckman, and the only Pulitzer Prize-winning wind quintet, by George Perle.

Baroque Flute Petting Zoo and Workshop: Historical flutes performer, Adrienne Greenbaum will host a baroque flute petting zoo for all curious players, young and old, novice on up. She’ll offer tips on tone, air speed and direction, and fingering. Come try one of her many early wood flutes, singly or for a quick dip in an ensemble!

ANNUAL FLUTE FAIR EVENTS

New York Flute Club Competition: Preliminary and final rounds of our annual competition for flutists ages 18-27 will be held at the Fair. Please visit our website for application and information. Application deadline is February 3. If you have any questions, contact competition chair Kaoru Hinata (kaoruhin@gmail.com). Note: The preliminary round will be held at the Manhattan School of Music at 122nd Street.

Exhibits: Flute vendors and makers, music publishers, and other members of the music industry will exhibit their products. This is the perfect opportunity to shop for a new flute or look for newly published music.

NYFC Table & Tag Sale: Visit the NYFC table for CDs and publications by NYFC members and guest artists. NYFC members may sell up to 10 items at the exhibit table. We’ll also have a Tag Sale of used music and flute-related items; contact Nancy Toff at nancy.toff@com.com or bring them the morning of the fair and pick up unsold items by 6:00 pm.

Ensemble Program Reading Session: Bring your flutes, piccolos, alto and bass flutes and join in! Featuring guest conductor Alberto Almarza of Carnegie Mellon University. For more info, contact Mark Vickers maestro@aol.com.

Raffle: Win a lesson with Lorna McGhee, principal flutist of the Pittsburgh Symphony and flute faculty at Carnegie Mellon University. Lesson on Skype or FaceTime (or in person in Pittsburgh) to be scheduled at your mutual convenience. Raffle tickets are $5.00 each, or five for $20.00.
