Eligibility: This contest is open to flutists ages 18 and younger who study privately with a New York Flute Club member. (All 18-year-old applicants must currently be in high school or the home-schooling equivalent.) All applicants must be available to perform in the winners' recital at the New York Flute Fair on Saturday, February 29, 2020, if chosen.

Repertoire: One piece written for either solo flute or flute and piano. Individual movements of multi-movement works are allowed, but cuts and alterations are not. Pieces written with piano accompaniment must be performed with accompaniment. For those unable to bring an accompanist, one will be provided.

Please check one:

_____ I will bring my own accompanist

_____ I prefer to use the NYFC accompanist (which I will arrange by contacting Caroline Sonett-Assor at ymc@nyfluteclub.org). Note that there is no charge for using the NYFC accompanist at the contest or Flute Fair performance, but a $30 per half hour charge for any rehearsals.

Prizes: The winner in each age category will receive an award and will perform in the winners' recital at the New York Flute Fair on Sunday, February 29, 2020. You may provide your own accompanist or use the accompanist provided by the NYFC.

Application fee and deadline: Completed application and check (made payable to The New York Flute Club) should be mailed to Caroline Sonett-Assor, 614 West 152nd Street, Apt 69, New York, NY 10031, and must be postmarked by January 17, 2020 ($35 early application fee) or January 24, 2020 ($45 regular application fee).

Proof of age: a copy of your birth certificate, passport, or driver's license is required as proof of eligible age. Please bring to the contest to show when you check in.
