RAFFLE

Win lunch and a lesson with Marco Granados. $10 for 1 ticket, $25 for 3 tickets, and $50 for 7 tickets. Onsite or on the registration form.

LECTURE RECITALS

The Joy of the Masterpiece: Allison Kiger and Christopher Johnson will provide insight into the Walter Piston Sonata. Written in the late 1920s, its rich atonality and meticulous craftsmanship capture the American moment in the “Age of Anxiety,” with poignant themes that still resonate today.

The Joy of Puerto Rican Music: Darwin Cosme Sanchez will give a lecture-recital featuring the music of Puerto Rican composers Alberto Rodriguez Ortiz, Awilda Villarini, and Jack Delano, who are underrepresented in traditional recital programs, demonstrating the influence Western European music has had on their work.

The Joy of the Underworld: Tessa Brinckman and Lisa Cella present three works (by Linda Dusman, Aida Shirazi, and Dominik Karski) for alto and bass flutes that push the boundaries both technically and sonically, examining how extended techniques are a beautiful means to an expressive end.

MASTERCLASS

The Joy of Teaching: Guest artist Marco Granados shares his ideas about playing with a steady flow of air, to enable the player to produce a beautiful, warm sound and play with unrestricted technique applicable to all styles and genres.

CONCERTS

The Joy of Movement: Zara Lawler brings her unique brand of artistry, which integrates dance and theater, to her performance for the flute fair.

New York Artists Concert: Robert Dick, Stephanie Jutt, Lish Lindsey, and Jessica Aura Taskov perform a concert of works by Robert Dick, Gary Schocker, Kristen Stoner, and Angel LaSala.

The Joy of the Electric Flute: David Wechsler will perform Thea Musgrave’s Narcissus for solo flute and digital delay, as well as his own Eight Moods for Solo Electronically Altered Flutes, and some electronic flute improvisations with percussion.

The Joy of Fusion: Carla Campopiano, flute; Gustavo Cortiñas, percussion; and Horacio Martinez, vocals and guitar; in a collaboration that fuses native Argentine and South American music with new energy, carrying the tango traditions through jazz and improvisation in original compositions and arrangements.

The Joy of Performing: A gala concert featuring guest artist Marco Granados, a flutist equally comfortable performing music of many different traditions, including music of his native Venezuela.

EXHIBIT HALL

Exhibits: Flute vendors and makers, music publishers, and other members of the music industry will exhibit their products. This is the perfect opportunity to shop for a new flute or look for newly published music. NYFC Table & Tag Sale: Visit the NYFC Table for CDs and publications by NYFC members and guest artists and information on our growing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) efforts. NYFC members may sell up to 10 items at the exhibit table. We’ll also have the always-popular Tag Sale, featuring used music and flute-related items, where diligent shoppers can discover treasures. Have items you’d like to donate to our tag sale? Contact Nancy Toff at nancy.toff@oup.com.

VENUE INFORMATION

Parking: Street parking is readily available in the area. For further details on blocks available for street parking and rates at local parking lots, check www.nyc.bestparking.com. Food: There are many delis and coffee shops on Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue. Pick up your food and head to the 5th floor Loft where tables will be set up for fair attendees to eat before or after they shop the exhibits.

WARMUPS AND WORKSHOPS

The Joy of Flow: Start the day with a warmup session led by Marco Granados and learn about his flow-based technique, regarding the use of air in flute playing.

The Joy of Maintenance: Anne Pollack, of Your Flute Works, shares tips and techniques of basic flute repair. Learn how to make quick minor adjustments and how to recognize when a professional is needed to handle more serious repair issues.

The Joy of Fula: Fula flutist Sylvain Leroux will conduct a workshop in applying elements of the language and techniques of the Fula flute, a traditional West African wooden flute, to the modern concert flute.

The Joy of Baroque Improvisation: Laura Thompson explores the world of improvisation using Joachim Quantz’s On Playing the Flute, presenting a practical workshop designed to spark creativity and self-expression.

FLUTE CHOIR

The Joy of Ensemble Playing: Jayn Rosenfeld leads a flute choir reading session. Bring your C flute, piccolo, alto, or bass flute to read through fun repertoire and enjoy making music with others.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

Please visit the DEI display at the Flute Club table in the exhibit hall to learn more about our growing diversity initiatives and meet members of the DEI committee.

COMPETITIONS

The Joy of Competition: More than 40 of the most promising young flutists entered our annual Young Musicians Contest. Hear the winners in four age categories: 8 and under, ages 9-11, 12-14, and 15-18. Stephanie Pizza serves as the coordinator for this event.

Flutists ages 18 to 27 are eligible to compete in the annual New York Flute Club Competition, which has recognized talent for more than five decades. The preliminary round will be held offsite earlier in the day, and the finalists will compete onstage before a live audience at the fair. Kaoru Hinata serves as the coordinator for this event.
